

Leavin' In an Uber (sung to John Denver's Leaving on a Jet Plane) (guitar in G)

Verse 1:

All her boxes are packed, Nicole's left the floor
She's standing' here by Big Blue's door
She is not quite ready, to say goodbye
But new dawn's breakin', It's Grit v.2
The Uber's waitin', He's texting her too
Nicole is looking back at thirty-one years

Chorus:

So bring her back and keep her sane
Let her keep things alive at VA
Business strategy is her best game
'Cause she's leavin' in an Uber,
Heading off to Board Seat rumors
Oh corporate, she hates to go...

Verse 2:

For her time at the House and U.N. was fun,
But her career had so much further to run
She pitched it all, and built a Powerpoint deck,
For a career at PW leading the world,
to Better Change and being the Master of CI
She pulled us together to form CPI

Chorus:

So bring her back and keep her sane
Let her keep things alive at VA
Business strategy is her best game
'Cause she's leavin' in an Uber,
Heading off to Board Seat rumors
Oh corporate, she hates to go...

Verse 3:

At IBM she caught the Leadership's eye,
For every new opportunity she said (shouted) "Aye"
I am here, to do or die!
We've seen business go up and down
So many times she just brought it around
I tell you now, what you did meant a lot

Chorus:

So bring her back and keep her sane
Let her keep things alive at VA
Business strategy is her best game
'Cause she's leavin' in an Uber,
heading off to Board Seat rumors
